H+ONC
HAEMATOLOGY + ONCOLOGY
SYMPOSIUM 2017
bringing discovery science to life

5-6 MAY 2017
MELBOURNE

Dear <first name> <last name>,

Amgen Australia is proud to present the H+ONC Symposium 2017 – Bringing Discovery Science to Life – an educational event featuring eminent national and international speakers who will deliver a cutting-edge, clinically-relevant educational program focusing on human therapeutics in haematology and oncology. We want to share with you current opinion and future trends from discovery science, through translational research, to therapeutic outcomes. The H+ONC Symposium 2017 program is being developed by a Steering Committee of national haematologists and oncologists.

The H+ONC Symposium 2017 will take place on 5-6 May in Melbourne.
